Hey, you move like I do, what's your aim?

I got you.

Wait, I warned you twice to stay away,

But you're welcome to come down.

All I wanna do is make you think that I could kill it.

All I wanna do is forget the time I really mean it.

Tell me where to go when my skin itches and I need it.

All I wanna do is make you think that I would kill it.

Lonely like a wolf, will you keep me straight?

Nobody should forget what down the hole looks like.

Feeling like a whore, will you be my date?

'Cause nobody should be walking down the streets at night.

All I wanna do is make you think that I could kill it.

All I wanna do is forget the time I really mean it.

Tell me where to go when my skin itches and I need it.

All I wanna do is make you think that I would kill it.

Tell me how you're feeling, what d'you wanna do now?

I'm only gonna sing my song.

Bleeding undercover, the end is near, and you're right

I'm only gonna sing my song.

Love me for the money, taste me for the honey,

You're only gonna feed my soul.

All I wanna do is make you think that I could kill it.

All I wanna do is forget the time I really mean it.

Tell me where to go when my skin itches and I need it.

All I wanna do is make you think that I would kill it.

I would kill it , I would kill it.
